

WXDU

88.7fm & 90.7fm Fall 1991

For the past eight years, WXDU has been providing the Duke and triangle community with the most aggressively progressive format on the radio dial. The music we play is eclectic, fresh and challenging. WXDU is dedicated to playing the best new alternative music from the local scene, from across the country, from around the globe.

WXDU Presents Live Music

WXDU sponsors a weekly concert series on Wednesday nights at Under the Street 1104 Broad St. in Durham, just three blocks off East Campus featuring the hottest bands from N.C.'s ever dynamic music scene as well as some prominent touring bands. Doors open at 9:30; cover always a bargain.

You can keep up with other music happenings in the Triangle by listening to XDU's concert calendar at 12:30, 4:30, and 8:30pm. Also listen for chances to win tickets to concerts and other goodies.

News and Sports

Updates every afternoon at 2:00 and 5:00pm make XDU your antenna to the world. The True Blue listeners will not want to miss XDU sports coverage of both men's and women's sporting events

Be Jamin' to the sounds of the Caribbean and beyond with Sharon St. Clair during the Reggae Sunsplash show on Saturdays Noon-3pm.

Hitch a ride on the Blues Train on Saturday from 3pm-6pm as our man Cornell takes you from the sound of the big city out to the country for some front porch pickin'.

Throw down to the beats of Hip-Hop and House music on Saturday nights from 6pm-9pm with Joe Neissen during Popcorn.

Sunday afternoons from 3pm-6pm you can hear M.J. Sharp as she focuses on music by, for, and about women during Women In Music.

Tune into the Bull City Cosmic Hoedown for a spicy gumbo of roots music from all over the planet including blues, folk, bluegrass, Cajun, Celtic, African and more plus occasional live performances by local and touring musicians! Sundays 6pm-9pm.

Sundays from 9-10pm you can chuckle your way into a new week with Marty Smith on Laugh Tracks.
